Before the Chief Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

Judicial Complaint No. 11-26-90237

ORDER

On March 24, 2023, the Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit identified Complaint No. FC-23-90015 against United States Circuit Judge Pauline Newman under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, and the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States. On August 19, 2026, the Chief Justice of the United States transferred Complaint No. FC-23-90015 and any pending or new complaints relating to the same subject matter to the Eleventh Circuit Judicial Council, where it was assigned Complaint No. 11-26-90237.

Judge Newman has requested permission to disclose orders and submissions in this case under Judicial-Conduct Rule 23(b)(7) (“If both the subject judge and the chief judge consent in writing, any materials from the files may be disclosed to any person....”). Pursuant to Judicial-Conduct Rule 23(b)(1) and (b)(7), Judge Newman’s request is granted to the extent that the existence of this proceeding is disclosed “to maintain public confidence in the judiciary’s ability to redress misconduct or disability.”

This Complaint matter is being conducted in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 351-364 and the Judicial-Conduct Rules. Consideration of whether to make additional materials public prior to the conclusion of the matter will be given as appropriate.
